

Dear Colleagues,

As you know, MEDICHEM 2016 will take place on August 31 through September 2, 2016 in Basel, Switzerland. The Early Bird discount is available to May 31, 2016 and I encourage you not to miss out!

Our industry and society is evolving all the time and there is new science to be discuss and shared in occupational medicine, occupational hygiene, occupational toxicology or occupational psychology. The MEDICHEM Conference is the prime opportunity to discuss issues of our industry with colleagues and peers in a private environment. At the conference you will hear from top scientists, experts and MEDICHEM members. You also have the opportunity to feature your own research in our poster session.

To register for MEDICHEM 2016, visit our registration page on our website here:
